Available in the CIA Library is a report on the Partito Repubblicano Italiano (PRI; Italian Republican Party) which states that, although there are four distinct currents within the Party, in essence the PRI is united since all the groups abide by the decisions of the executive group. Leaders of the four currents are Randolfo Pacciardi, who is opposed to the Scelba Government; Oronzo Reale, who is in favor of supporting a Christian Democratic Government without being a member of it; Ugo La Malfa, who advocates a shift to the Left; and Achille Battaglia, who heads the Left-wing faction of the PRI.
